Re: LM-10/LM-30 Reporting

Dear Mr. Mohorter:

I am sure you are aware that all trust funds dealing with labor organizations are now required, for the year 2004 (and subsequent years) to file LM-10 reports that show the value of things paid for, or on behalf of, officials of labor organizations. Correspondingly, labor officials, in most instances, are required to file LM-30 reports showing these amounts.

Our fund records indicate the following things of value and, absent guidance from the Department of Labor to the contrary, will be reported on our 2004 LM-10 form.

6/19-25/2004	Lodging & Meals - IES	$1,001.07
6/24/2004	Graduation Banquet	$43.49

We are providing this information to you to assist you in the preparation of your LM-30. If you have any questions, if we may be of further assistance, or if your records disagree, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Michael D. Metz
Fund Administrator
